APRIL CALENDAR
& SERMON PLAN

Dear Plymouth Family,

Sometimes we miss opportunities to connect our friends and family with the uniqueness of our church community. So please take time not only to invite someone to the following events, but to prayerfully go through this issue of the Beacon and consider how you might participate or get involved.

Especially right now people are looking for safe spaces that reflect Jesus—even if they're not quite sure what that looks like. This is a great time to share who we are, and what God is doing in and through us.

With so much gratitude for your work and compassion,

Pastor Wendy

Come see Tiny Beautiful Things in the Fellowship Hall on the first or second weekend of April! Our amazing local Wine Country Theatre has partnered with Plymouth Church to put on this show, and proceeds from both Friday shows (4/4 and 4/11) will be contributed to PCC. Come enjoy an evening of snacks, wine, good company, and a fantastic show! For tickets, visit WineCountryTheatre.org or use your phone camera to scan the QR code to the right. —————→

Palm Sunday

Join us at 9:30AM at the Downtown City Park on Sunday, April 13th for our Palm Sunday procession, where we will join with our neighbor St. James and process back to church together for Palm Sunday service.

Maundy Thursday

We will be holding a Maundy Thursday service at 5pm on Thursday, April 17th in the Plymouth sanctuary. We hope to see you all there!

Easter Sunday

Join us for our Easter service on Sunday, April 20th! Invite all your friends and family to celebrate at Plymouth with us for this special holiday, and stick around afterwards for fellowship and an Easter egg hunt directly after service!

A WORD FROM OUR DIACONATE

Happy Birthday to Plymouth Congregational Church. April 13th Plymouth will have had worship in our sanctuary for 131 years. We have had so many saints that have worshiped here before us. I think they are all looking down at us and glad we are keeping the faith.

We continue to be in the Lent Season. Maundy Thursday is April 17. We will have a service that includes foot washing. It was a very meaningful service last year. Good Friday is April 18 and Easter is April 20. Diaconate will be providing a brunch fellowship time after Easter service. Get out your Easter hats!!!

We have wonderful members in our Diaconate team. Our wonderful team is: Cynthia Anthony, Anne Crabbe, Rev. Wendy Holland, Sandy Levoe, Sharon Rowe, Esther Hulse, Mary Sayne, JoAnne Stoddard, and Gail Lloyd. We prepare communion, get greeters and liturgists for every service, make sure we have fellowship treats and flowers every Sunday, order supplies, launder tablecloths, restock the pews, fill the candles, and make sure the liturgical colors are correct. Yes, we are busy and we get it all done! If you are asked to be a greeter or liturgist please say yes.

Plymouth is known for our wonderful fellowship time after church. We have several blank lines on the flower and fellowship sign-ups. Please find a Sunday you could sign up. Snacks and flowers are appreciated by all. Remember there is assistance for monetary compensation if needed.

Time to do some Spring cleaning. Take time to go through cupboards and drawers. The church is having a fund-raising Estate Sale. We're going to have a Spring-Cleaning Day at Church also. The Estate sale will be in May.

Blessing to all,
Sharon Rowe

MISSION OUTREACH NEWS

The Plymouth Cares meal on March 4th was another success. When I arrived at 2:30 PM, I saw the lunch crew was finishing up with the cleanup of Fellowship Hall, so I asked around for who helped out. We served 108 dinners featuring Stu's Aunt Eleanor's Beef Noodle Casserole with assistance in the kitchen from Alex. Chris made her popular Green salad with Ranch dressing. John and Linda T. provided the tasty buttered Hawaiian Sweet Rolls. Large, extra-delicious, chocolatey chip cookies were made by Meghan and daughter (Hazel?). Chris helped me set up the sack lunch assembly lines the day before, which was used by the crew of Chris, Britt, Anne J., Sharon W., and Chuck. Julia, Cherry, Stu, Chris and John S. were the servers at the ECHO Shelter and heard many a "Thank you" and other appreciative comments on the meal. Thank you all so much for making another successful Plymouth Cares meal.

The Box for Donations for the Unhoused yielded a large assortment of wonderful items, which included a purse, several blouses, ladies shoes, men's shirts, a pair of ladies slippers, 4 jackets, several sweaters, men's shoes and several pairs of pants. The Jackets and sweaters were set aside for our warming shelter guests on March 5th & 6th. The rest of the donations were delivered to the ECHO Shelter on the evening of March 4th. The warming shelter appreciates the response to the request for coats and blankets.

Saturday, April 12, is our second quarterly blood drive for 2025. If you are able and agreeable, please donate at the Fellowship Hall between 10:00 AM - 2:00 PM. The most efficient way to participate is to make an appointment online at Vitalant.org. Please see the flyer at the back of the Sanctuary that provides appointment options and an incentive program whereby two people who donate blood during the month of April will be randomly selected to win a year's worth of groceries, valued at $10,000! So, give blood and save up to three lives and be entered to win a year's worth of groceries!

The One Great Hour Of Sharing (OGHS) special mission offering was initiated on March 30. This is the first of four annual special mission offerings conducted by the United Church of Christ. This year's theme is "Be the Light," as Jesus directed us in Matthew 5:14. The mission of OGHS is to support domestic and international development, fight poverty and its consequences, bring aid and relief to communities torn by war or ravaged by natural disaster, advocacy and resettlement assistance for refugees and displaced persons, and combat injustice in its many forms. OGHS provides funding and hands-on assistance in to partner organizations who are on the ground where the relief is needed. There is still time to make a donation using one of our offering envelopes and marking it with OGHS, writing a check payable to Plymouth Church with a notation for OGHS, or going online to our website at plymouthchurchpaso.com and clicking on the "Give" link at the top of the home page and entering a notation for OGHS.

BIO: Leslie Wallace

Dear Church family,

As Easter approaches, this spring marks two years that we have been blessed to be a part of Plymouth Congregational Church. We are a quirky bunch, sometimes loud, often walking in late, and noticeable to say the least. And yet, you've welcomed all of us with open arms, and I am so grateful.

Trago and I have been able to participate on the Youth And Families board for over the last year, and it is with both excitement and a little trepidation that I recently accepted the position as Chair. I thought this would be a great time to introduce myself a little bit more and give you a glimpse of why I accepted this call:

Trago and I have been married for 21 years. We have 5 creative, loud, and fun children: Cohen, William, Dexter, Maddy & Debbie. Cohen is a freshman at Saint Louis University this year so you don't see him quite as much. He's having a grand time studying business, playing chess, and singing in an acapella group. The other four kids keep us busy with drama shows, track meets, horseback riding lessons, and general tomfoolery. It has been an absolute joy to lead the church in worship once a month as a family and a truly special phase in our lives, no doubt.

Before investing in family life, I earned a bachelor's degree from Cal in Child Development. I then went on to teach preschool through Head Start, and eventually ran a parent participation program with the boys in tow for 10 years. Since then, the girls have kept me on my toes learning new things about speech therapy, autism, advocacy, and community building. In our last church I loved leading Vacation Bible school program and serving on the elder board for Women's Ministry.

Our faith journey that brought us here is not without its bumps and bruises, but it is profoundly strengthened by God's faithfulness, despite our deconstruction and new revelations. We continue to fall more in love with Jesus as we study his word, and Thursday morning bible study has been a highlight for some of these discussions.

I'm hopeful as I dive deeper into Youth and Families here in our church that we can do three things. We can continue to foster a welcoming environment for all people who call this church home, that we can pour the stories of God into the hearts and minds of our children and youth in a way that leaves a lasting impression, and we can provide a fun and inclusive environment where we can all invite our friends and neighbors one step closer to Jesus.

In gratitude and fellowship,
Leslie Wallace

Estate Sale

We are again having an Estate Sale as a fund raiser at the church on Friday, May 16 and Saturday, May 17. More details will follow soon but for now our emphasis is on securing as large an inventory of sale items as we can. We are asking for contributions of items you have available that could be included in the sale.

Following are the types of items we are looking for:

- Paintings
- Artworks
- Collectibles
- Shop tools
- Yard tools
- Small tables
- Mirrors
- Antiques
- Bicycles
- Jewelry
- Handbags
- Sporting goods
- Kitchen appliances
- Musical instruments

We have tried selling clothes in the past and the effort simply wasn't worth the trouble. If you have clothing items you wish to donate, we can take them to either Goodwill or NCI, both of whom are located here in Paso Robles.

If there is something special about an item that would be helpful in the sale, please include a note to that effect. You can bring donation items to church on Sunday or drop them off at the church office. For larger items or if you just need to have them picked up, contact Bill Krum:
